Vol 31 No 2 Email: staff@dovercoc.org January 13th, 2019

I kneel before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge — that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Ephesians 3:14-19 NIV

One of the best gifts we can give those we love is to pray for them. One of the most important prayers we can pray for other believers is the one Paul prays here. We can pray for those we love to be strengthened by God's Spirit! Not only can we pray this prayer for them, but we can also let them know that we are praying this prayer for them. Why not copy Paul's prayer and send it to a believing friend or family member and let them know that you have prayed this prayer for them today?

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Hebrews 11:1

We have faith in our day to day relationships with our family and friends because we see the results. If this faith or trust is broken, we no longer have this relationship. This break could be by either party. However, the relationship we have with God is different. God's faithfulness is always available. This is His gift to us. We are the one who rejects this relationship. God looks for those who seek to do His will with all their hearts.

Paul said, "For we live by faith, not by sight." (2 cor. 5:7)
"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith – and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God." (Eph. 2:8)

Our belief may be weak at first. It grows as we study the Word, as we fellowship with other Christians and as we accept the grace He offers. Again, whether we grow in faith or not, is strictly up to us. "Yet to all who received Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God." (John 1:12)

Our belief is in something unseen. Although we did not witness the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we know it happened, because we believe. The disciples that were with Jesus believed because they were witnesses. Jesus told Thomas, "because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed." (John 20:29)
