"Temples of the Holy Spirit"

Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore, honor God with your bodies. — 1 Corinthians

6:19-20 NIV

When this was written, temples were the places where the gods were thought to live. More than places of worship, these were places of presence. So, when Paul reminds us that we are temples of God's presence through the Holy Spirit, he is saying something quite profound. God lives in us! We are the places of God's dwelling. We are holy temples, not because we cleansed ourselves or made ourselves into some incredible dwelling place but because God bought us and sanctified us with the price of Jesus' life. We are his purchased prime real estate so that his glorious presence can be seen in the world in which we live. As the place where God lives by his Spirit, we are challenged to honor and glorify God with our bodies, his temples. No matter how you may look at your physical appearance, remember this: You are holy, precious, and glorious because the King of Glory has made his home in you through the Holy Spirit!

RESURRECTION

Some say that they believe in the resurrection – and put major emphasis on it once a year. At the same time, they deny the great truths declared by the resurrection:

The resurrection declares that Jesus is the Son of God – but many deny His deity.

The resurrection declares that the cross satisfied the wrath of God – but many deny the reality of sin and the fact that God must punish sinners.

The resurrection declares that we can be saved, as our faith leads us to be baptized in the likeness of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection (Rom. 6:3, 4; Gal. 3:26, 27) – but some deny the necessity for baptism while others refuse to put on Jesus in baptism.

The resurrection declares that we have a living Savior who makes intercession for us – but many scoff at the idea that God provides personal strength for life.

The resurrection declares that a special day has been set aside for worship, the first day of the week – but many limit their attendance to a few days in the year.

The resurrection declares that someday we will be raised – but many deny the bodily resurrection.

The resurrection declares that God stands behind His Word – but many jeer at the teachings of that Word.
