Life Lines

Vol 29 No 22 Email: staff@dovercoc.org June 11th, 2017

Most of us realize that at an early age we need and want friends. Some of our family can be our friends, and it is most important to have special friends from among our church family. They want and enjoy the same things we do.

We also realize that there are some people who seem to have few friends. They have the need for friends, but seem unable to keep them. We have all heard, "To have a friend, you must first be a friend." If you have a selfish streak, you may not have many friends. Friends need to share and be there for each other. One sided friendships usually don't last long. My granddaughter, Kristen, gave me a little plaque for my birthday that says, "If God is all you HAVE, you have all you NEED." This is so true! His love is unconditional and He will love us regardless. He is a true friend! Saving us is conditional. He will always be our friend, but if we want to receive His promises, we have to believe in Him and obey Him. His promises are indescribable!

He gave his son as a sacrifice for our sins. After we have repented and been baptized for the forgiveness of these sins, Jesus is our mediator. Here is another friend. He also intercedes for us to His father. If we are obedient, baptized, believers, we have the gift of the Holy Spirit in our lives. He intercedes for us; helping in our prayers and our struggles to live a holy life. Here is another friend!

God has given us His inspired word through the Holy Spirit. Reading and studying the Scriptures can be like a friend to us. There are so many helpful words to comfort us during trials and tragedies. We find peace and hope in the word. Here is another friend! So, remember, "If God is all you HAVE, you have all you NEED!"

Smile Boxes for Nicaragua

Each year, the Dover Church of Christ works with several area churches which are led by the Highway Church of Christ in Judsonia. These churches provide hundreds of "Smile Boxes" that are sent to "Misión Para Cristo" in Nicaragua. These boxes represent Christmas presents for the children there. Our congregation works all year to prepare a total of 200 of these boxes, which are then sent out the 1st week in September. Currently, individuals and classes are supplying these items. However, if you have not contributed before, and would like to, please see the list below and consider helping to Share in the Love with the children in Nicaragua!
