"Led"

[After his baptism,] Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.
Matthew 4:1 NIV

We sometimes miss part of the significance of this verse because some of the wording is different from Mark and Luke. Notice carefully that Jesus was LED INTO the wilderness TO BE TEMPTED by the devil. Jesus' temptations were no accident. Clearly, the evil one wanted to derail Jesus' ministry before it began. But Jesus defeating the devil in his temptations was part of God's plan just as Jesus' crucifixion was part of God's plan (Acts 2:23). In both situations — Jesus' temptations and his crucifixion — the evil one was involved, and in both, even the devil was beaten. Jesus was tempted like we are so that we can be assured that God knows what it is like to be tempted. Yes, God knows all things. Nevertheless, for our sake, he chose to experience things in Jesus so that we can be sure he knows what it is like to be hungry, alone, abandoned, betrayed, tempted, belittled, mocked, ridiculed, denied, treated unfairly, and even murdered. We know that God not only knows, but that he also felt, what it was like to be in our world and face these horrors. Thus, we can go to him knowing we will receive grace, help, and a sympathetic ear in our times of trouble (Hebrews 2:14-18; Hebrews 4:14-16).

Lifelines by Pat McAlister

Do you look for bargains? Most everyone these days is looking for a bargain, whether it be clothing, food, or a new car. Anything we need or want; we look for a bargain. We want that good deal, and want to get our money's worth.

Have you ever thought about what a bargain heaven will be? How much does it cost? Does He ask more than we can give? Can we even comprehend how long it will last?

The widow only gave two small coins. Jesus said she gave more than the wealthy. God does not ask for more than we have, just a fair share. He does not ask us all to use ten talents. If we have one, He expects us to use it, if we have many, He expects us to use many.

What is our cost for this eternal dwelling place? God commands us to love Him and to love our neighbor. He requires that we obey His Word, and remain faithful. We may slip, but if we repent, He gives us another chance. The bargain is still ours!

Earthly bargains don't last long, do they? They are insignificant when compared to the promises of heaven. Heaven is forever. We can see beauty all around us in the spring time, but no comparison to the beauty of heaven. The streets are paved with gold, there is no death, no mourning, no tears. Now I ask you again. Have you ever thought of what a bargain heaven will be? Don't miss the opportunity. The alternative is condemnation.
