I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.

Romans 1:16

Are you ashamed? Culture tries to make us ashamed about our faith, portraying people of faith as stupid, insensitive, judgmental, and hypocritical. Are you ashamed? Are you willing to share your faith humbly and gently with those who do not know Jesus as their Lord? Are you ashamed? Your hero left heaven to come to earth and risk everything so that you could come home to heaven with him. This Gospel is powerful. This Gospel is transformational. This Gospel, and the salvation it brings, are for all people. So, let's not be ashamed; let's be joyous and generous with this incredible gift that we have received.

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

Do you often think of all the promises that God has given us? Regardless of our need, He has an answer. The Lord told his people in Isaiah 65:24, "Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking I will hear." Jesus tells us again in Matthew 6:8, "...for your Father knows what you need before you ask him."

There are no limits, no bounds, anything we seek we can find, through God. Matthew 7:7 says, "Ask and it will be given to you, seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

His grace cannot be measured. We cannot fathom His goodness, it reaches beyond anything we can even imagine. Hebrews 13:5 says, "...because God has said, 'Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you.'" This is difficult for us to understand because we live in a time where promises are not kept. "Even if we are faithless, he will remain faithful." 2 Timothy 2:13.

The Holy Spirit was promised to us by Jesus. "But you know him, for He lives with you and will be in you." John 14:17 "I can do all things through Christ who give me strength." Philippians 4:13.

God has promised not to give us more than we can bear. "And God is faithful; He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, He will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it." 1 Corinthians 10:13 He has also promised to protect us from Satan, the evil one. 2 Thessalonians 3:3.

God's goodness knows no bounds. His promises are certain. "Know therefore that the Lord your God, is God; He is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commands." Deuteronomy 7:9.
