Thought for the Week

"I can lie down and sleep soundly because you, LORD, will keep me safe" (CEV)--Psalms 4:8

Wow, how powerfully comforting are the multitude of thoughts that begin to flow through my mind as I think about this statement made by David long ago. When we are actively engaged in doing those things that will make our calling and election sure (2 Peter 1:5-11), when we are truly seeking first the kingdom of God (Matt. 6:33), when we have set our affections on things above and are seeking those things (Col. 3:1-2), we can with calmness, quietness and peacefulness of soul pillow our heads in sleep each night. By the same token when we awaken in the morning we will rise from our beds rejoicing that we have been granted the privilege of seeing another sun rise. Even though we do not know what the day will bring forth, we begin this new day of existence in full confidence that the all-seeing eye of our God will be watching over us and he will, if we allow him to do so, lead us safely through the day (Heb. 4:13, Psa. 33:18-21).

During our sailing from the shore of birth to the shore of death there will be calm seas that will make the voyage easy and beautiful. There will also be the rough, stormy seas that will make the voyage uneasy and hazardous. Much could be said about this but one thing is for certain, we need a good pilot, a good compass and a good chart along with a strong anchor to make our sailing a successful one. We should be grateful that God has provided us with the best Pilot, his son, our savior, Jesus (John 3:16, Rom. 5:8, Heb. 13:5). Be grateful that God has supplied us with a good compass (2 Tim. 3:16-17). Be eternally grateful that God has also supplied us with the chart to follow that will, if we follow it, lead us safely on the voyage to our appointed destination (James 1:21, Acts 17:31).

At all times on this sea of life, we are going to have need of that strong anchor and thanks be to God we have that anchor--it is called "Hope" (Heb. 6:19). I know not how you feel, but as for me, I have learned in my 81 years of life that I alone lack the knowledge and the wisdom to steer my ship successfully through the sea of life. I want and I need the Lord Jesus Christ to be the Captain of my ship and so I have given myself over to him. I want him to mold my thoughts, fill my heart and guide my life. How about you? If we fight the good fight, finish the course, keep the faith, then when our ship docks at its final destination, a crown of life will be ours (2 Tim. 4:7-8).

Can you lie down and sleep soundly knowing the Lord will keep you safe? If not, why not?

Next Men's Business Meeting
August 14 @ 7pm

The next ladies' night will be at the church on August 17th. They will use this opportunity to prepare items for the smile boxes for Nicaragua.

---

The deadline for preparing the Smile Boxes for the children of Nicaragua has been moved up this year to try to get them delivered in a more timely manner. This means we will be needing your donations for the boxes earlier than usual. We will be putting the boxes together on Saturday, August 26th beginning at 9 am in the basement. We also need to begin collecting the $1000 shipping cost. If you do not usually contribute to the boxes, please consider helping with the shipping cost for this worthy project. We still need about $650 for the shipping cost. Give your donations to Karen or Charlene.

Dover's own Russ Bus project continues to take snack packs to the homeless each Monday. The items to bring this week are Pop Tarts and Chef Boyardee cups with a pop top. Thanks for your help!
