Since this is the kind of life we have chosen, the life of the Spirit, let us make sure that we do not just hold it as an idea in our heads or a sentiment in our hearts, but work out its implications in every detail of our lives – Galatians 5:25

Thought for the Week

God's written word is invaluable to us as we mature in Christ and learn more and more of God's will. As we mature, we will choose "the life of the Spirit" rather than just trying to follow God's commands written on stone or pages. We will have God's will written on our hearts and shown in our lives by the transforming work of the Spirit (2 Corinthians 3:17-18). Today's verse is Paul's reminder that follows his description of the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). Since the Spirit is God's gift to lead us in our dance of grace, then we must let him take the lead in this dance. We must long for the Spirit to transform our hearts and minds to reflect the righteous character and gracious compassion of our Father in heaven. We must seek the Spirit to order our steps in every area of our lives.

Lower Lights Be Burning

Each of us have a "call" in this life. Some to be preachers, some doctors, school teachers, carpenters, managers, mechanics, missionaries, and any occupation you can imagine. God has someone chosen for each of these duties.

Each of us has a job to do in the world, that makes us a little different from our fellow brothers in Christ. All of us, however, have a calling that brings us together, despite what we do in our other areas of life. That calling is demonstrated by song number 642 in our song book; a hymn entitled "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning."

God is in His lighthouse in Heaven, for all of us to see, beckoning us home. Still some of our friends, neighbors, and co-workers are too far away to find the path back. Our unending call is to be the small, steady burning lights along that path, leading others along it, to our Lord.

I challenge you to read the words of this song and let your "lower lights be burning", leading the lost to Christ.
