Thought for the Week

For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. —

Hebrews 4:12

What is the greatest tool to repair the human heart? ...by-pass surgery? ...angioplasty? ...artificial heart? ...transplant? How about the Word of God? You see, while these other techniques can be of great aid to the physical heart of people, God's tool for heart surgery is his Word. This sharp scalpel can reach the soul and spirit as well as being a physical blessing. So how much of your heart are you offering to God, and his powerful heart-healing tool to touch? As you open God's Scripture, as you hear the message of God preached, why not ask for the Holy Spirit's help to help you understand, apply, and put into practice what is being taught? Let's offer our hearts to the Great Physician to do his work in us!

Lines for Ladies by Patty McAlister

Recently I read this, "If you're worried, it's because you're living in a time other than the present moment."

How true this is! Why does Jesus tell us not to worry? Can we change the past? Can we control the future? "Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?" (Matt. 7:27)

Worrying is a lost cause, a cause of stress and many health issues. It also shows our lack of faith in the Lord. When we have truly repented of our past sins He says we are forgiven and He will remember them no more. Do we actually believe this? If we do, we need to leave the past there, in the past.

As for the future, don't most people worry about things that never come to pass? I forget the percentage but it is very, very low. There are so many more important things we could be doing and thinking about, rather than about something that will never happen.

"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all of these things shall be added to you. Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble" (Matt, 7:33-34 NKJV)

We won't have time to worry if we're busy and in the present moment. When we are doing the Lord's work, helping others, studying the word, visiting the sick, praying and doing other Christian duties, we won't have time to worry.

We worry when our minds are idle. Paul tells us to think, or meditate, on things that are pure, just, lovely, or anything praiseworthy. When we are able to do these, God's peace will be with us and worry will be left behind.

Remember, we must live in the present moment, because that's all we are promised. By worrying, we can't change the past, or control the future. We must trust in the Lord and His promises. As God's children, He cares for all our needs.
