

These two chapters reveal God's Throne as now occupied by God the Creator and God the Redeemer. These are not "two separate Gods", but two divine Persons of the "one God" (Deut. 6:4). When Isaiah witnessed God on His throne, he only saw the "limited glory" of the Father. At the time, the glory of His Son was "in the bosom of the Father" (Jn. 1:18). As the Word of God (Jn. 1:1), Jesus' glory was yet to be revealed (Jn. 1:14). Jesus spent His entire earthly ministry revealing His divine glory. At the end of His ministry, He told Philip: "he who has seen me has seen the Father" (Jn. 14:9).

The New Testament reveals one Throne occupied by one God: God the Creator and God the Redeemer. To honor the Son is to honor the Father (Jn. 5:23) who has "highly exalted" Jesus to His Throne of glory (Phil. 2:9). May Christians never limit our praise and prayers to God the Creator, but also include God the Redeemer who "by Himself purged our sins" (Heb. 1:3). "Blessing and honor and glory and power be to Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb forever and ever" (Rev. 5:13).

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! — 2 Corinthians 5:17

It's better than starting over! As Christians, we get a fresh and new start. God not only forgave us, pardoned us, ransomed us, and saved us, he also made us a new creation! And every time we come to him, every day we rededicate ourselves to serve him, and every new year we offer to him, we get a new start and a whole new world. So, as we begin this new year, let's begin by offering ourselves to him, asking him to cleanse us from all unrighteousness, and take leadership of our lives.
