*Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ. - Philippians 3:8

There is a huge difference between “our temporal things” and “God’s eternal things”. When Paul became a Christian, he left all “his things” to gain Christ and “His things”. You and I have also left the old world of the flesh that we might dedicate our lives to one new goal and passion in life – to “gain Christ”.

Our old life was devoted to the false god of “self” as we sought to gain every worldly advantage. In our vanity we sought money, pleasure, recognition and the praise of men. In the process we elevated ourselves to the throne of our hearts as “slaves of sin” (Romans 6:17). When Jesus found us, we buried the old man of sin into His death and were raised to the new life of “faith in Christ”. Our new calling is to “reckon” (count, consider) ourselves “to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 6:11).

The “mystery of the gospel” is that through our burial by baptism into the death of Jesus we became “crucified with Christ” so that we no longer live, but Christ now lives in us. The life we now live in the flesh we live by faith in the Son of God who loved us and gave Himself for us (Galatians 2:20). The new song of our hearts is: “I am mine no more; I’ve been bought with blood; I am mine no more”. The old man of sin is now dead and gone that the new Man of Christ might live in us!

For Christians the “loss of our old things” in the flesh means “the gain of our new things” in Christ! The old life we gave up for Christ was but the temporal, fading life of the flesh. The new life we gain in Christ is the eternal life of His Spirit. We gave up “dust and ashes” to gain “eternal glory”. While we still live in a temporal fleshly body, we rejoice that “though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day” (2 Cor. 3:16).

In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I will not be afraid. What can mortal man do to me? Psalm 56:4

When all is said and done, there really isn't a whole lot we can trust. Most of us have been hurt at one time or another by a friend who has betrayed our trust. The world economy is volatile and things can turn sour in just a few days. The weather shifts and changes by the hour. But in our world of change, in our heartbreak and disappointment, there is one constant. We can trust God. We don't have to fear change. He is our anchor that holds in the strongest storms. He is our strength in our worst battles. His word and his promises speak of good things for us. We don't have to be afraid; we can trust in him.
