If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have faith that can move mountains, but have no love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:1-3

Love! In the week of Valentine's Day, we want to remember the real meaning of love. Without the motivation and expression of love, all "Christian" activities are more "activity" than Christian. Love is the expression of Christ's character and presence in our lives through deeds done for others. So, don't get lost in the annual trip down sentimental lane. Too many of us forget the needed daily dose of love that so often gets lost in the grit of day-to-day relationships. Let's be loving year-round and thus show ourselves to be Jesus' disciples (cf. John 13:34-35)

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

Have you had old stains that you have been unable to remove from some clothing? I have. My sister gave me something that is great in removing stains, old or new. It is Fels-Naptha, a heavy-duty laundry soap. It really works.

You are probably thinking, "What is she doing? An ad? What does this have to do with an article in a church bulletin?"

These "old stains" made me think of some old sins, maybe too deeply embedded to be removed. Maybe you haven't always been the person you appear to be now. God can't possibly wash these away. You say, "But God, this happened 20 years ago, and it was terrible. There is no way you can wipe this clean. I know you forgave me yesterday when I was gossiping. Or last week when I failed to visit a sick friend. But, how can you remove this deep stain?"

God never put a limit on time or the sin when he promised to forgive, did he? He says he will remember them no more. "For I will forgive their wickedness and remember their sins no more." Hebrews 8:12, and Jeremiah 31:34

Usually we can't forgive ourselves. We want to hang on to those memories, good or bad. Or perhaps we have a problem forgiving others. God will forgive us if we forgive others. God truly forgives, no matter how deeply the stain is embedded.
