"Don't Be Troubled or Afraid"

[Jesus said,] "I am telling you these things now while I am still with you. But when the Father sends the Advocate as my representative — that is, the Holy Spirit — he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I have told you. I am leaving you with a gift — peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid."

John 14:25-27 NLT

In a world of chaos and uncertainties as well as trials and difficulties, we can have peace — not because we are out of touch or in denial, but because the presence of the Holy Spirit, our Advocate, within us brings us our Father's comfort. The Spirit teaches us about Jesus and his great love and sacrifice for us. The Spirit comforts us, ministering to our interior world — our spirits. This gift of peace is not something anyone can have without the Spirit. But because of the Spirit's presence, we are blessed in ways that those without the Spirit cannot know. The peace that the Spirit brings us is the basis for our Christian joy, whatever our circumstances.

Who Do You Say That I Am?

Matthew 16:15

Jesus asked His apostles a critically important question: "Who do you say that I am?" Jesus knows that a proper understanding of who He is leads to a right relationship with God. He first asked the apostles to tell Him who other people thought He was, then asked who they thought He was.

Peter answered by professing what millions have come to confess throughout the centuries: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. His answer could not be a more accurate description of who Jesus is. Peter was just beginning to find out what his statement of belief would mean, not only to his life, but also to the life of the church which is built upon our faith in who Jesus is.

The faith of any believer today can be determined by his answer to Jesus' question. True believers say that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. Anyone who says otherwise does not fully understand the character and nature of our Lord and Savior Jesus. Some say that Jesus was simply a great moral teacher or a prophet, but Jesus never claimed to be anything other than the Son of God. When theories abounded about who He might be, He acknowledged that Peter alone had a correct understanding of who He was.

It is crucial that believers today understand the power and truth of Peter's proclamation of Jesus as the Son of God. To say that Jesus was, and is, the Son of God is to say that He is the truth and the only way to enter a right relationship with God. Through Jesus, believers can experience everything that comes with knowing God and having a relationship with His Son – grace, peace, mercy in this life, and eternity with Him in the next.
