For there is one body and one Spirit, just as you have been called to one glorious hope for the future. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father, who is over all and in all and living through all. — Ephesians 4:4-6 NLT

Unity is more than just getting along. At the core of maintaining unity and keeping the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:3), there is ONE core reality. Paul emphasizes this core reality by using "one" seven times. These seven immutable and essential elements of our faith include the "one Spirit" — the Holy Spirit of God who is at work in us. We must never let the Spirit of God become relegated to a place of diminished importance. We must, however, realize that just as the "one Lord" animates and defines the "one hope," the "one faith," and the "one baptism," so also the "one Spirit" empowers and defines the nature of our being the "one body" as we seek to honor the "one God."

Reasons To Be Optimistic

A three-year old received a trophy at a gymnastics competition. As she was posing for pictures, she dropped the trophy and it broke into two. The audience gasped, expecting tears. But the little girl picked up the pieces and said, "Look! Now I have two trophies!"

How nice it would be to have simple expectations as a child. Why are so many of us too often pessimistic? Paul wrote: "Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, dwell on these things." (Phil. 4:8)

When we feel discouraged, when we feel like we're sinking into depression (not clinical depression; I'm talking about the "blahs" we get from time to time), when we feel like we can't get anywhere, we have to "dwell on these [positive] things." Let me share some with you:

1. We are created in the image of a loving God.
2. We are bought with the precious blood of a loving Redeemer.
3. We are guided by the wise words of an Eternal Spirit.
4. God can work all things together for our ultimate good.
5. We can live in the forgiveness of God.
6. The loving-kindnesses of God are new every morning.
7. We can always leave the past behind, adjust to a new reality, and reach toward the future.

"Optimism" is not biblical word. But faith: "Have faith in God" (Mark 11:22). And, to quote Harper Lee in To Kill a Mockingbird, "Things are never as bad as they seem."

Paul Holland
