"Led by the Spirit of God"

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. — Romans 8:14 NIV

Parents lead their children till they are ready for life on their own. As we cry out to God as our "Abba, Father" (Romans 8:15), God leads us. We are his young children, and we never outgrow our need for his leading. He leads and guides us through the influence and work of the Holy Spirit. This is one reason why Jesus could promise his closest followers that he would not leave them as orphans when he went back to the Father. Instead, he promised to send them the Advocate — the Counselor, the Intercessor, the Comforter, The Helper — whom we know as the Holy Spirit (John 14:16-18). As God's dearly loved children, we can choose to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit, or we can rebel and live on our own. Life and peace, however, are found by living in step with the Spirit's leading (Romans 8:6). Rebellion and death are the results of living on our own without the Father's help (Romans 6:23; Romans 8:6-7). The Father has demonstrated his love for us through the gift of his Son. The Son has promised to be with us through the Holy Spirit. So, let's listen for our Father's voice and follow our Father's heart by responding to the leading of the Holy Spirit!

WHEN SATAN GIVES YOU DIFFICULT CIRCUMSTANCES

(Acts 4:1-31)

Peter was more concerned about Christ and the gospel than about himself. From his example, we can deduce several suggestions on what to do when the devil tries to destroy us:

1. Don't be surprised (vv. 1-3).
2. Don't throw up your hands (vv. 4-6).
3. Don't play by the devil's rules (vv. 7, 8).
4. Do forget about yourself (vv. 7, 8).
5. Don't expect the devil to play fairly (vv. 15-17).
6. Don't give the devil an inch (vv. 18-22).
7. Do stay close to your sources of strength (vv. 23-27).
8. Do rely on God (vv. 28-30).
9. Do believe that God will give you strength (v. 31).
