To Love Is To Live

Mark 12:28-31

Ralph’s Reflections – “I Think Myself Happy”

Paul spoke the above four words to King Agrippa during his trial (Acts 26:2). These words reflect his attitude to “Rejoice in the Lord always. Again, I will say rejoice” (Phil. 4:4). Paul thought himself to be happy because he chose to rejoice in his Lord under all circumstances of life (good or bad).

Paul had many reasons to be unhappy: imprisonment, beatings, false charges, threats of martyrdom, abandonment by friends and a host of other difficult factors (cf. 2 Cor. 11:22ff). Any one of these dark circumstances could lead the average person into deep, dark depression. But not Paul! He found his joy and happiness in his faith in the Lord Jesus Himself.

The apostle had learned a great lesson. Happiness is a choice, even in the darkest of times. During his trials, troubles, tribulations, and tears when nothing was going right, Paul would think himself happy by choosing to rejoice in the Lord and in all his spiritual blessings in Christ. In prison, he chose to sing praises to the Lord. On stormy seas when his boat was about to sink, he chose to pray. In floggings and famines, he could rejoice in his eternal salvation. The apostle had learned to consider himself happy. It was his choice. He was not able to control his afflictions and he had no choice in his sufferings, but he had a say in his mental state, and he chose to think himself happy!

Through faith in our Lord Jesus, 21st century disciples can also learn to develop an attitude of gratitude and thanksgiving in all circumstances, pleasant or unpleasant. We can choose to be happy because we know the Lord will provide the strength, we need to face any challenge. May we all choose to focus on Jesus as the Light rather than the darkness of our depressing circumstances! Happiness is only a glimpse of faith away!

Emory S. Peck has written: "If the skies above you are gray, you are feeling so blue. If your cares and burdens seem great, all the whole day through. There's a silver lining that shines in the heavenly land. Look by faith and see it my friend, trust in His promises grand. Sing and be happy, press on to the goal. Trust Him who leads you, He will keep your soul. Let all be faithful, look to Him and pray. Lift your voice and praise Him in song, sing and be happy today."

Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. — Hebrews 11:1

While the road ahead of us may be clouded with questions and concerns, we can look back and see the many ways God has acted in our behalf to get us to the places we need to be. But more than just us, we see his work through history and we can take assurance that his promises are true and his victory in us is assured. phil@heartlight.org
