Jesus’ Name: Prince of Peace

The last name (but certainly not the least) that the inspired prophet foretold the Lord Jesus would be called is Prince of Peace (Isa. 9:6). The angelic chorus announced Jesus’ birth as they sang Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men! Luke 2:14

In Rom. 15:33 Paul prayed: Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen. As “Mighty God”, Jesus is the God (or Prince) of peace. Though God sometimes permits war to achieve His mysterious purposes, His holy will is (as the angels sang) that there be peace on earth and good will toward men. War surely grieves Him!

When Satan, as an archangel, rebelled against God, the LORD declared holy war upon him and all his evil angelic followers as He cast them out of His holy dwelling place. Since the time of this infamous Satanic war in heaven, sin has been the enemy of God and His people. James traced all sin back to Satan (the original source of all lusts and war), as he asked his readers in James 4:1-2 Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure that war in your members? You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain.

When man first chose to sin in Eden, he unknowingly crowned Satan the god of this world (2 Cor. 4:4)! The good news is that after their sin, our holy and Almighty God foretold that He would send Jesus (the Son of Man and Son of God) into this world of sin to fight Satan. In Gen. 3:15 God foretold that Satan would win a temporary victory over Jesus by bruising His heel (through putting Him to death on Calvary). But Jesus would win the eternal victory over Satan by bruising his head through the power of His glorious resurrection. Christians now rejoice in their peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ (Rom. 5:1). We make peace with God through Jesus' blood as God pours His perfect love out into our hearts (Rom. 5:5). This whispers sweet peace to our spirits deep within. By the power of His peace, we become God's children as His peacemakers (Matt. 5:9). Just as Satan is the source of all sin, Jesus is the source of all true peace. Someone wisely boiled these great truths of the Bible down to four little words: "Know Jesus, Know Peace. No Jesus, No Peace".

To choose to become a disciple of the Prince of Peace is to personally know His perfect peace that passes all understanding. Those tossed about by earthly cares in the storms of life can turn to the Prince of Peace and trust Him alone to shout Peace be still! He can calm the storms, but sometimes He lets the storm rage and calms His Child. Whatever He does, it was best for Him to have His way with us!

When the time finally comes for us to wade into the chilly waters of the Jordan River of death, the Prince of Peace will also be there to take us by the hand, calm our fears and escort us as the Good Shepherd of our souls to the other side of a welcomed eternal Paradise with Him! May all praise be given to His precious name of names!

Malachi 3:7

In times of horror and disaster, people routinely ask, "Where is God in all of this?" In reality, we often leave God at the periphery of our lives and look for him only when we are desperate and have no other options. We make our life messes, rebelling and ignoring his truth, then want him to bail us out. At the same time, as God pours his blessings into our lives, we forget to give thanks for his grace. When things are going well, we seldom say, "Where is God in all of this?" He's right here blessing us! Let's praise him for his goodness! God pleads with us to turn to him and seek after him in good times and in bad. Not only will we find him, he will return to us and walk with us.
