Since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding. Colossians 1:9

In a world where we can feel so isolated and alone at times, it is so important for us to know that someone is praying for us and for our spiritual needs. As I think of the thousands who are a part of the Today's Verse ministry, I cannot help but pray that each of them, that you, are blessed by knowing that you share a spiritual journey with people all over the world, and that today, we will be praying for each other. And of course, there can be no better prayer than the one that Paul prayed for the Colossian friends he had never met — "I ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding." Let's pray that for each other today.

Ten Great Truths About God

Zechariah 8

1. He has revealed His will to mankind. Again and again, the chapter says, “Thus says the Lord of hosts.”
2. He wants us to be exclusively His people today. He had a special relationship with Israel and was “exceedingly jealous” for that nation (8:2).
3. He cares for those in need. He is concerned about the elderly and about children – people who are relatively defenseless and are likely to be overlooked or neglected by society (8:4, 5).
4. He is all-powerful; nothing is too difficult for Him (8:6).
5. He is a God of salvation; He saves His people (8:7, 8).
6. He is a God who makes a covenant with people, and He always keeps His promises. He reaffirmed the original covenant He had made with Israel by saying He would be their God and they would be His people (8:8).
7. He wants us to worship Him. He urged the people to complete the construction of the temple so they could worship Him (8:9; see John 4:24).
8. He wants us to be righteous (8:16, 17).
9. He promises that His people will have occasions to rejoice (8:19).
10. He loves all people and wants everyone to be saved (8:20-23).
