*Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you. Ephesians 4:32

I Have Found The Answer!

I think I found it, the answer to the questions we have been asking ourselves since the beginning of time:
 How can I make the world a better place?
 What can I do to help stop the violence that is happening around us?
 What can I do in my own little circle of influence to make life better for the people closest to me?
 The answer isn't profound. It doesn't require a lot of energy, nor will it cost you a cent. It is actually very simple and something we all have the ability to do.
 Are you ready to hear what is going to change you and the world around you? Be kind.
 That's it. Just be kind.
 Be kind to your spouse, your boyfriend or girlfriend.
 Be kind to your children, your parents, and grandparents.
 Be kind to your neighbors, your doctor and your dentist.
 Be kind to the cashier at the grocery store, the department store and the pharmacy.

Be kind to animals, the forests, and our oceans.
Be kind to policemen, firemen and other first responders.
Be kind to the postal worker, the FedEx driver and even the person who calls to tell you your credit is fine, but...
And most importantly, be kind to yourself.

Seeing God

Often we think we can only see
God

In the great things:

The illnesses cured,

The lives saved,

The relationships restored,

The foes defeated,

The friendships,

The love,

The great unimaginable undeserved

Blessings.

But God is not in the whirlwind

And God is not in the earthquake

And God is not in the fire.

God is found in the

Still

Small

Voice

And sometimes we can see Him

In the simple gift of being alive
