"Useful Because of the Spirit"

Every part of Scripture is God-breathed [Spirit-inspired] and useful one way or another — showing us truth, exposing our rebellion, correcting our mistakes, training us to live God's way. Through the Word we are put together and shaped up for the tasks God has for us. — 2 Timothy 3:16-17 MESSAGE

As you open your Bible, imagine the Holy Spirit standing in front of soft clay or un-chiseled marble. As you read the Scriptures, the Spirit takes those Scriptures and molds you and shapes you into someone beautiful. That someone is still you — just as surely as clay shaped by a potter is still clay and chiseled marble is still marble — but as the Spirit works on you through the Word, you come to resemble Jesus, more and more. You are shaped by the Holy Spirit who uses that Scripture to mold you for the life God has for you!

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

“How to Make a Better Me”

Everyone has the desire to be a better person, better liked, and to have more friends. But, the question is, how do I accomplish this?

One method which has great possibilities is to take one day at a time to work on a single aspect of spiritual development. Today, for instance, let's ask God to help us not make any unkind remarks about others. We may slip and think some derogatory thoughts, but let's not express them. Bite your tongue, count to ten. Do anything to keep from judging others.

Do you harbor ill will against anyone? Is there someone that you really dislike? Maybe someone has wronged you. Unfair things do happen to all of us. How do we overcome these hurt feelings? Christ recognized this problem when He taught His disciples to forgive, not seven but seventy. So, what do I do? Make a phone call, write a note – do something that would signal that all is forgotten and forgiven. The good feeling inside us will be our reward.

Don't forget to be thankful for all the people in the past who helped you along the way; Parents, teachers, friends, co-workers, doctors, to name a few.

(A note to some of them would warm their heart and strengthen you." Sue Shoptaw – 1915-2003.) Recently, I found this article that Sue wrote for Lifelines in 1990. What she wrote then, is still very good instructions for today. Most of us do want to have more friends. We want to be a better person, too. Most improvements do take one day at a time. Being thankful for those in the past, who helped us, is very important. She influenced many of us and she showed us a true love of the Lord in her example.
