"Sorrow to the Spirit?"

And do not bring sorrow to God's Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he has identified you as his own, guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption.

Ephesians 4:30 NLT

Some other translations say "do not grieve the Holy Spirit." Two truths scream to be heard. First, the way we live matters deeply to the Spirit! Second, we can actually oppose and wound the Spirit of God who lives in us. As Galatians 5:13-21 reminds us, feeding the fleshly, sinful side of ourselves puts us at war with the Spirit of God. Things like telling lies to each other, acting out our anger, stealing, sharing unwholesome talk among ourselves, living with rage and brawling, and slander are all activities that bring the Holy Spirit sorrow (Ephesians 4:25-32). Living under the influence of the Spirit empowers us to go beyond these bad qualities as we are conformed to be more and more like Jesus (2 Corinthians 3:18; Galatians 5:22-26).

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

Do you ever feel lost? Not in the sense that you can't find your direction, but that you are lost in your spiritual life. Some times we drift away from God, from what we know to be right and good. Don't let your life become involved with the world so much that you cannot turn back.

In giving God's law to the Israelites, Moses told them that they would scatter from the Lord, worshipping man-made gods of wood and stone, which could not see or hear or eat or smell. Then he told them, "But if from there you seek the Lord you God, you will find him if you look for him with all your heart and with all your soul." Deut. 4:29

He told the people their God would not abandon them, nor forget them. Many times, they drifted from God, forgot His promises, but He was ever faithful.

We miss one worship service, then another. One day we forget to pray, then another. The more we slip away, the easier it becomes. We may not worship idols as the Israelites did but we have other idols. Whatever keeps us away from God, our time, our jobs, our hobbies – these become our idols.

Don't get too far away as some of the Israelites did. "See the Lord while he may be found; call on him while he is near." Isaiah 55:6
