“As Jesus Did”

A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. Proverb 17:17

The team needs you to be the best coach ever.

Your boss needs you to go above and beyond your job description.

The kids need you to be super mom.

Your wife wants you to read her mind.

Your church wants you to be fully involved in every program.

By the time the weekend is over, you're exhausted and wake up only to realize it's Monday and time to do it all again.

One of the characteristics of Jesus that constantly amazes me was His ability to be and to do what everyone needed Him to be and to do.

When people needed compassion, He shared plenty of it.

When people needed firm teaching, He taught with authority.

When people needed to know they were loved, He loved them lavishly.

When people were hungry, He fed them.

When people needed to be forgiven, He forgave them.

When people needed a Savior, He died on a cross.

When people needed hope, He rolled the stone away and came out of the tomb.

All those things He did while He walked the earth. All those things He still does.

Why? Because He loves us and wants us to do the same. He wants us to love as He loves.

We love because he first loved us. Because He loves us we can love others (1 John 4:19).

We cannot be everything and do everything that Jesus is and does. We often let our human tendencies overpower our desire for His Spirit to do his work within us. But, we can do one thing well and do it consistently just as Jesus did in his earthly ministry: We can try to love people as Jesus did. Let's do that.

This week let's love like Jesus loves and see what happens!

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. — Psalms 90:12

So often we look up and time has passed us by. The things we promised ourselves we'd accomplish and the deeds we told others we'd do get left undone. Before we know it, days have become weeks, and weeks months, and months years. We find ourselves unable to do what we once assumed we could do any time we want. We must ask the Spirit of God to help us see and seize the opportunities the LORD places in our path.
