Shape Your Worries Into Prayer

I search for words, and You send these:

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:6-7).

Said another way, Your words speak even more directly to my heart:

Don't fret or worry. Instead of worrying, pray. Let petitions and praises shape your worries into prayers, letting God know your concerns. Before you know it, a sense of God's wholeness, everything coming together for good, will come and settle you down. It's wonderful what happens when Christ displaces worry at the center of your life (Philippians 4:6-7 Message).

Thank you for such straightforward words.

Do not be anxious about anything. Don't fret or worry. Instead of worrying, pray.

Right, no problem. So, how do I do that? My brain is full, my head is spinning, and my heart is restless.

Please, tell me. Guide me.

Present your requests to God. Let petitions and praises shape your worries into prayers, letting God know your concerns.

Thank you, God, here are my requests. One by one, I lay them out before You. I praise and thank You for life, health, family and friends, a home, food and clothing, freedom, love, and forgiveness. Please hear my concerns and give me wisdom, direction, protection, good health, joy, love, and forgiveness.

Please, assure me. Guide me.

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. It's incredible what happens when Christ displaces worry at the center of your life.

Thank You.

I believe You.

I will follow You.

Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through a prophetic message when the body of elders laid their hands on you. — 1 Timothy 4:14

Life seems so busy, so full of distractions and "to do" lists. Let's not let our "busyness" keep us from our Father's "business." Let's find the ways God has gifted us to serve him and his people; then let's dedicate ourselves to that with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength.
