"Made Holy by the Spirit"

Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to God's elect, exiles scattered throughout the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to be obedient to Jesus Christ and sprinkled with his blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance. – 1 Peter 1:1-2 NIV

"Sanctifying work of the Spirit" sounds so formal and religious. Some translations put, "his Spirit has made you holy," but even that wording really doesn't capture the essence of the meaning for me. What I believe Peter is trying to tell us is that our souls were like an old stained rag we used to clean up messes in the garage. When the Spirit comes into our lives, he takes this stained rag, and he cleans it, makes it new, and gives it incredible value. Instead of being the rag for messes in the garage, it is now a beautiful, clean, white tablecloth normally used for special occasions, but to be shared in all its glory in daily life. The Holy Spirit of God takes our broken, stained, and battered souls and makes them clean, new, and valuable — not just for us, but for God. This concept is crucial, as evidenced by it being repeated several times in the Bible (Romans 15:16; 1 Corinthians 6:11; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; 2 Thessalonians 2:13; Hebrews 10:29; 1 Peter 1:2).

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

There are some advantages to being alone. You can squeeze the toothpaste anyway you want, there are no lost socks in the wash, and if you want, you can hang the toilet paper upside down. But, being alone is quite different from being lonely. There are no advantages to being lonely.

A Christian should never be lonely. If you are, it is because you choose to be, or because of circumstances of health or age. What causes loneliness in a healthy, able person? Is it lack of faith? As a Christian we have the opportunity to associate with our church family. We also have the promise of the Counselor, the Spirit of truth. Jesus said, "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever – the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you." John 14:16-17

We have our Father with us at all times. If we do not feel his presence, it is because we have not sought it. The spirit "helps us in our weakness" – "intercedes for us" – "helps us to understand what God has freely given us" – "His Spirit lives in us" Romans 8:26, 27; 1 Cor. 2:12; 1 Cor. 3:16

Keeping the Spirit in our lives is the key to conquering sinful desires. Through the power of the Holy Spirit we can have joy, hope and peace. Romans 15:13

Joy, hope and peace are not synonymous to loneliness.
