God’s Perfection

God is perfect (Matthew 5:48). He makes no mistakes and has no character flaws. His love is perfect toward all people. He sends the rain upon the just and the unjust. He makes the sun to rise upon the evil and the good. How do we see His perfection high-lighted in the Scriptures?

His works are perfect (Deuteronomy 32:4). "...His work is perfect, for all His ways are just; a God of faithfulness and without injustice, righteous and upright is He." No one can improve upon what God does.

His words are perfect (Psalms 19:7a). "The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul." His Word is complete, unerring, and perfectly suited to our needs. God has not told us everything we want to know, but He has told us all that we need to know.

His ways are perfect (Psalms 18:30). No one can bring an honest accusation against what He has done. He has never erred in judgment. He has never miscalculated. He has never forgotten.

If we stand with Him, we cannot lose. If we stand apart from Him, we cannot win.

 Ezekiel
 (Searcy, AR: Resource Publication, 2004) pgs. 609-610

Do you ever copy from others? You see the way they do this or that, you like it, and start doing as they do. Maybe it is their hair-do, something they wear, or even their manner. Maybe it is the way they are always doing something for someone else.

Someone makes something, we do what they did, but decide to change it some, get it to do something else, something more. Invention. This is how we have accomplished things all through history.

Our lives are like this. We get ideas from others, either by seeing what they do or by reading about it. Some of this is good, but we must be careful. We are easily deceived. We must make sure that the example we copy or follow is a good example. Just because someone else does it, does not make it right. We have many warnings in the scriptures about whom or what we should follow. Our best example is Jesus Christ.

The Israelites were forever following others, which lead to their ruination. Wanting a king because the surrounding people had kings, worshipping idols, inter-marrying outside their own tribes, always wanting to be like someone else. For many, many years one king followed another by sinning against God.

Let's make sure the example we follow is the right one. We don't know who is following our example either!

For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps: "Who committed no sin, nor was deceit found in His mouth." – 1 Peter 2:21, 22
