"A Good Man!"

Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and strong in faith. And many people were brought to the Lord. — Acts 11:24 NLT

Earlier in the book of Acts, we met Stephen, who was described as being "a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 6:5). Now Barnabas is described in similar terms. Just as was the case for Barnabas, ministry must be based on the work of God through us as we are gifted and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Our faith that God can do more than we can even imagine is crucial to this kind of Spirit-power working through our lives (Ephesians 3:14-21). Unfortunately, some of us want a shortcut to the Spirit's power. We don't want to have to demonstrate faithfulness. We don't want to be focused on prayer. We don't want to be devoted to sharing with others. But in both Barnabas and Stephen, we see these qualities. As we continue our journey looking at the Holy Spirit through the remainder of the year, let's all ask ourselves: "What do I need to do to open my heart and invite the Holy Spirit to have more influence on me and more transformational power in me?" When we yield to the Spirit's power and influence, our lives bear amazing fruit. Barnabas wasn't effective just because of his talent; he was effective because of his faith and because of the Holy Spirit's power in him!

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the weak, and to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, but those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 40:28-31

God gives His strength to match our needs, on our level. Sometimes, when we are in trying situations, we must have special energy so that, figuratively speaking, we might be able to soar like eagles. We may even long for the ability to fly above some temptation what would be too strong for us. God provides that type of strength for us. At other times, we must wait on the Lord. The circumstances may require that we walk and not get weary. We must wait, for the fulfillment of His promises has not yet come. We have to stand on the promises and wait in trusting confidence. Because we are trusting in Him, He gives us the strength to run and not get tired, to walk and not become weary. We must continue to trust, even when the fulfillment of His promise is not yet in sight. God has not failed us; in His wisdom, He is working out a plan in harmony with His appointed times.
