MUTUAL ENCOURAGEMENT

"I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to make you strong – that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith."

Romans 1:11, 12

We need each other as Christians. We need to worship together, work together, and socialize with each other. It helps us to lift our voices with others in praise. It encourages us to see others faithfully serving the Lord. It strengthens us to hear how others are meeting tribulation with the help of God.

Have you ever stood before a blazing fire? What would happen if you pulled a glowing ember from the fire? It would soon grow black and cold. Something similar occurs when one separates himself from the company of his fellow Christians. One reason God established the church is that He knew how much we need the support of others to live the Christian life.

David L. Roper

Romans 1-7

(Searcy, AR: Resource Publications, 2013) page 102

"I Can't Take It All In!"

I look behind me and you're there, then up ahead and you're there, too — your reassuring presence, coming and going. This is too much, too wonderful — I can't take it all in! Is there any place I can go to avoid your Spirit? to be out of your sight? If I climb to the sky, you're there! If I go underground, you're there! If I flew on morning's wings to the far western horizon, you'd find me in a minute — you're already there waiting! — Psalm 139:5-10 MESSAGE

Psalm 139 has long been one of my favorite psalms. David gives us words to talk about God's abiding presence across every nanosecond of life. He is there at conception, knowing us, purposing our lives, and making us — his fingerprints are on us. He is there in the daytime and nighttime. He is there in good times and bad. He is there even as death surrounds us. And the means of his presence? The Holy Spirit. We cannot, and should not, ever want to be out of sight of God's Spirit or out of range of God's grace. How can we understand this concept? I don't think we are intended to understand it completely. We are to take comfort in it, as Jesus reminds us so powerfully in John chapters 14-16 when he calls the Holy Spirit our Comforter/Counselor/Advocate (John 14:26; John 15:26). We join with David and say, "This is too much, too wonderful — I can't take it all in!"

Upcoming Events:

We will continue to have two church services, until further notice.
9:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

It has been such a joy and blessing to see those who have been able to attend the worship service.

Thank you to the elders and deacons who are making sure it is safe for us to assemble together, sing songs of praises and worship our Lord!!!

Micah will also continue to do his Sunday morning sermons on Facebook and YouTube. If you are not able to attend church these videos are still available for you to watch.

Also, Merrell Shoptaw, Sid Womack and Michael Robbins will continue the lessons on Wednesday. We all appreciate these spiritual lessons weekly.
Keep up the good work!!
