To him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you before his glorious presence without fault and with great joy — to the only God our Savior be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and forevermore! Amen. — Jude 1:24-25

What a great cluster of truths are found in this one prayer of blessing. Our eyes are first drawn to what God can do for us — prevent us from falling and present us before his glorious presence in joyful perfection. But on closer inspection, our hearts are drawn to the description of our incredible God: the one who is able, the only God, our Savior, the one who lives in glory and majesty and power and authority, the one who has communicated to us through Jesus our Lord, and the one who exists before all ages and who is alive now and who will be forevermore. Our blessings as God's children are incredible, but the reason why they are is that our God is beyond incredible, awesome, and wonderful. Our words cannot do him justice. Our brightest insights cannot comprehend the glory he has. Yet despite his grandeur, he loves you and me in our finite mortality!

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

As a brother or sister in Christ, do you ever feel special? Are we allowed to feel special? We are special, but an important likeness of Jesus is being humble. Can we feel special and still be humble at the same time? I think we can if we don't let this feeling keep us from loving others, and sharing this specialty.

God's people have always been special to Him. Jesus had a special love for the apostle, John. We have a special knowledge, knowing that there is a promise of a better life hereafter.

Christians are unique, set apart. We are a part of His kingdom that "is not of this world." Being such, we must share with others our brotherly love, compassion, kindness, etc. Straying from these, could make us forfeit our uniqueness. We could slip into "this world" very quickly.

We are blessed if we continue in our faith and obedience. We fall under the blessing given to Abraham long ago. "All nations will be blessed through you." (Gen. 12:3 and Gal. 3:8b) So, how do we, as Gentiles, receive this blessing? "So those who have faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith."

Why is Christianity so special? Why did God give us such a gift? "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son..." John 3:16

Upcoming Events:

We are now having only one service beginning at 10:45 a.m., Sunday mornings in the auditorium.

No classes at this time.

ALSO

On Wednesday nights at 6:30 p.m.

Singing and devotional

No classes

Micah will also continue to do his Sunday morning sermons on Facebook and YouTube. If you are not able to attend church these videos are still available for you to watch.

Also, Merrell Shoptaw, Sid Womack and Michael Robbins will continue the lessons on Wednesday. We all appreciate these spiritual lessons weekly. Keep up the good work!!

We are still needing Crayons (24 count) and 3x5 note pads with spiral on the top, for the Smile Boxes for the Nicaragua children.
