"Moment of Glory"

The moment [Jesus] came out of the water, he saw the sky split open and God's Spirit, looking like a dove, come down on him. — Mark 1:10 MESSAGE

Winning the Super Bowl, winning the World Cup, winning Wimbledon, winning the British Open, winning the Daytona 500, and winning the World Series are considered lifetime achievements for those involved in the respective sports. Yet none of these victories even approaches the significance of the moment in today's verse. Jesus, with droplets of water from the Jordan River running down his face, is honored in a powerful way by God. More than just the words of affirmation that Jesus receives (Mark 1:11), heaven is torn open — surely a sign of a world-changing event. The Holy Spirit of God comes in a visible form to show heaven's approval. Jesus is recognized as awesome: not awesome in the sense of some great athletic achievement, but as one who is worthy of awe and reverence. God the Father and God the Spirit show the majesty of God the Son. The new age of God's grace is signaled by the heavens opening, and the power and peace of this grace are seen in the coming of the Spirit.

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

“The Lord told Joshua, ‘be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go... Then you will be prosperous and successful...do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.’” (Joshua 1:6-9)

Joshua’s life seems to be one of the most successful of all the stories in the Old Testament. He loved the Lord and followed the Law. After the death of Moses, he was chosen to lead God’s people. Right away God told Joshua that no one would be able to stand against him. “As I was with Moses, so will I be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.” (verse 5).

Joshua would be the one to lead the Israelites to conquer the land of Canaan. God would deliver the enemies into their hands as long as they obeyed Him. Joshua led them across the Jordan on dry land. He led them to bring down the walls of Jericho. They were successful each time they went into battle until the battle of Ai. So why weren’t they successful here? Did someone disobey the Lord? Yes, his name was Achan. He took some things from Jericho that God had instructed them not to do. At this battle they lost 36 men. For this disobedience, Achan and all of his family were destroyed. Then again, Joshua and the people were successful. The Lord kept his promise to Joshua.

Even at the end of Joshua’s life, he was faithful. In these most beautiful words, he proclaimed his love for the Lord. “...Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve... but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” (Joshua 24:15)
