Thanksgiving

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High: To show forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night (Psalms 92:1-2)

Each year, the fourth Thursday of November is the day set aside as a day of "Thanksgiving". It is a day of feasting on delicious food, a day of enjoyment and relaxation with family and friends, and perhaps a little time watching football. It is also a day in which people pause for a moment and express thanks for family, friends, jobs and material possessions. This is truly one of the happiest times of the year.

Enjoy this Thanksgiving Day with family and friends, but as you do, I pray you will remember that true and lasting happiness comes only from the many spiritual blessings that are ours to enjoy each day on this earthly pilgrimage. As faithful children of God we have the blessing of a hope that goes beyond this earthly life with all of its celebrations.

We have the blessing of a Savior who has prepared for us a home in the wonderful city of God (John 14:1-3). We have the blessing of having been rescued from the domain of darkness, transferred to the kingdom of the beloved Son in whom we have redemption, and the forgiveness of sins (Colossians 1:13-14). We have the blessing of being able to go before the throne of grace and find mercy and help in time of need (Heb. 4:16). Our hearts should be filled with thanksgiving and praise to God every day, because of the way in which He has so abundantly blessed us (Matt. 6:25-34; John 14:27; 2 Cor. 9:8-11; 1 Thess. 5:18). Live a life of thanksgiving to the Lord every waking moment. Start each day and end each day with a prayer of thanksgiving for the rich blessings of God.

I hope that this "Thanksgiving Day" will be a magical time for you, a time of joy, happiness and peace. Enjoy this day with family and friends but as you do, also remember that while this day may be a time of great joy for you, there are others, who for one reason or another, this day will not be a time of happiness and peace. In our celebration, be thoughtful of others because we do not know what another person is dealing with.

Give thanks to the Lord, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done.
1 Chronicles 16:8

Giving thanks is more than being thankful to God, it is letting others know of his gracious works so they too can come to know him as Father, Redeemer, and Victorious Lord. Then others can join their voices with our own in a chorus of thanksgiving from the hearts of those whom God's love has redeemed.
