Our Citizenship Is In Heaven

Philippians 3:20--For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ (NASB)

Though we have not yet obtained it, as children of God, our home is in the city whose builder and maker is God (Hebrews 11:10). We are looking for and seeking a better country, a heavenly one (Hebrews 11:16). Today, as sojourners on earth, our affections are set on that heavenly country and the desires of our heart are centered on it (Colossians 3:1-2; Matthew 6:19-21).

We are on a great journey that has no end. O, to be sure, the day is coming in which we will fold up this earthly tent but that will not mark the end of our existence (John 11:25; John 5:24; 1 John 5:11; 1 Timothy 1:16; 2 Corinthians 5:1).

I love this life I now live and want to stay here as long as possible without becoming a burden on my children, but I know that this world is not my true abiding place and it is not your true abiding place either. Hear me when I say that we need to live our life as if we expect the next moment of time to be the one in which we will fold up this earthly tent and go home to the beautiful city of God. Life on this side of eternity is brief indeed and this should not come as a surprise to any of us since God's word points out its brevity (Psalms 9:10; Job 9:26; Isaiah 38:12; 2 Samuel 14:14; James 4:14; 1 Samuel 20:3). As we grow older our strength fades considerably. As we see our loved ones slip silently out into eternity, it really sinks in that life here is but for a short time.

Through the eye of faith, we see that wonderful place we call home. It is a grand, beautiful and spectacular place (Revelation 21). It is truly a place where joys shall never end and where we will never grow old. In that heavenly land all the troubles, cares and burdens connected with living in the flesh will afflict us no more. How beautiful and wondrous heaven must be.

What more is there to say? I eagerly anticipate and longingly look to the day when I can view that majestic city from the inside. How about you?

"Waiting through the Spirit"

For through the Spirit we eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope. —
Galatians 5:5 NIV

Waiting is hard. Waiting for something or someone special is incredibly hard. Waiting for our transformation to be like Jesus, full of righteousness and grace, is impossibly hard without the gift of the Holy Spirit. But with the Spirit, we eagerly hope and expect to see all that God has prepared for us and all that he will transform within us!
