Truths About Life

This prophecy brings before us a broad and extensive judgment. It begins, “Behold, the Lord lays the earth waste, devastates it, distorts its surface and scatters its inhabitants...The earth will be completely laid waste and completely despoiled, for the Lord has spoken this word” (Isaiah 24:1-3).

This solemn depiction of judgment should prompt serious thought. What are some of the important truths about this life?

One truth is that sinners will be judged. The prophecy says, “the earth is also polluted by its inhabitants, for they transgressed laws, violated statutes, broke the everlasting covenant” (Isaiah 24:5). Often it seems that the wicked are applauded and exalted, but in God’s time such people will face the iron hand of God’s wrath. We are told, “A curse devours the earth, and those who live in it are held guilty. Therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men are left” (Isaiah 24:6).

A second truth is that God’s purposes will be fulfilled. God’s eternal purpose cannot be destroyed. He asks people to serve Him and enter into His holy purposes; but if they refuse, He proceeds in ways of His own to complete His eternal plans.

A third truth is that God will receive those who trust in Him. He is the eternal God of faithfulness and truth. He never vacillates between weakness and strength. He never varies in His integrity. Whoever obeys Him in faith and trust will be received, loved, and saved.

Life is followed by judgment. This fact assumes and implies other facts. Sinners will always be judged by the righteous God who made them. God's purposes will be fulfilled regardless of what humanity does, and God will receive anyone who comes to Him in faith. Let us be sure that we understand these truths about life.

Once you were alienated from God ... but now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation. — Colossians 1:22

"Christians aren't perfect, just forgiven!" You've probably seen this bumper sticker or something similar. In one sense this is absolutely true. But, from God's point of view, Christians ARE perfect. That's the incredible message Paul gives the Colossians. Because of Jesus' sacrifice, God does not see our imperfections. He sees us through Christ's perfection. Look at these concepts and marvel! Look at how God views you and give thanks! Be humbled by God's grace to us in Jesus and rejoice! Holy, without blemish, and free from accusation there's nothing left to say but "Hallelujah!"
