When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. For I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior...

Isaiah 43:2-3

In the context of this passage, God reminds his people that they are precious to him. He formed them and redeemed them. He is not about to abandon them. No matter what challenges or difficulties they face, he will be with them to deliver them and bring them to safety and victory. We can accept this same promise; we also have the benefit of history to show God's faithfulness. We can see how God did preserve his people and redeemed them time and time again from their bondage to their enemies. God will not forget his children! We know it by promise. We know it by history. We know it by faith!

How Valuable Is Jesus To You?

When the apostle Paul was Saul of Tarsus, he had become a rising star among the Jews in Jerusalem. He was “advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries among my countrymen, being more extremely zealous for my ancestral traditions” (Galatian 1:14). He had an impeccable relationship and heritage among the Pharisees and was regarded highly by the Sanhedrin.

Yet, Paul was willing and eager to give it all up to have a relationship with Jesus Christ and attain the resurrection. This certainly differs from the Jewish leaders who believed in Jesus but would not confess Him so they could remain in their positions at their synagogues (John 12:42-43).

What are you willing to sacrifice for the sake of knowing Jesus Christ? Would you leave error as Paul did to come to the truth? Would you give up a pet sin or an encumbering practice that competes with your commitment to Christ?

If the kingdom of God and His righteousness is truly first in your life, you will be willing to deny yourself and take up your cross daily to follow Him (Matthew 6:33; Luke 9:23). Serving the Lord every day will be your focus and your pleasure.
