Dark Circumstances vs. Trust In God

When the circumstances of our lives become dark, we tend to focus upon the darkness rather than upon Jesus, the Light of our Faith. If we focus on the darkness, we may tend to think God no longer loves us as He once did when our circumstances were brighter. We may ask: “Is He punishing me for some sin?” Satan tests our faith as he whispers: “You don’t really have a relationship with God. If you do and He is ‘all-powerful’, why would He allow such bad circumstances to arise in your life?”

In such moments of “doubt”, we must remember that our faith is in God Almighty – not the circumstances of our lives. We must always trust God and never allow our emotions to dictate, that we focus upon our circumstances rather than the Lord Jesus Himself!

Because our God is Almighty, no circumstance is beyond His power to handle! Rather than listening to the voice of the enemy, we must listen to the voice of our Savior who possesses all authority in heaven and on earth (Matthew 28:18). Our assurance rests in the truth that Jesus is far more powerful than the darkest of circumstances! Circumstances come and go. Some we think are “good”, others we think are “bad”. Our assurance is that God works all things together for good for those who love Him (Romans 8:28). Rather than lamenting our dark circumstances, we should “rejoice in the Lord..." as we find our "joy in the God of (our) salvation" (Hebrews 3:18).

Most of God's dealings with His children are aimed at blessing us with His presence and power to handle whatever circumstances arise in our lives. If necessary, He may deem it profitable for us to leave the green field to pass through the desert of need. In such moments, let us never forget that the God of the mountain is also the God of the valley. The God of the day is also the God of the night. Sunshine of day or darkness of night, mountain of joy or valley of sorrow, let us always trust Jesus as the supreme joy of our souls. Do I hear the winds of sorrow howling in your soul? Don't be overcome with grief!" "Rejoice in the Lord always. Again, I will say rejoice" (Phil. 4:4)

These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deuteronomy 6:6-7

We are to begin each day with God. Every breath we take should be a powerful reminder that our Father has granted us another day of life to serve him. Each heartbeat is God's drumbeat of love, reminding us that we are blessed with another minute to offer him our best. This blessing is so easily forgotten. We best remember these truths when we teach them and show them and live them with and before our children. But, let's not leave their learning these truths to our example alone. Let's find teachable moments to explain our faith, to praise our Heavenly Father, and to teach God's truth.
