Prayer and the Enemy

In His model prayer Jesus taught His followers to pray: And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one (Matt. 6:13). Each of these phrases is a confession of our total dependence upon our Father in heaven if we are going to defeat the enemy. The Christian knows that apart from Jesus he can do nothing (John 15:5). A healthy prayer life is an open confession of our total dependence upon our Father and the Lord Jesus. Those who do not depend upon the Lord allow sin to rule their lives. Paul makes it clear that we are all servants of either sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness (Rom. 6:16). Sin will never be satisfied to play a “minor role” in our hearts and lives. Satan and Jesus both demand all or nothing at all. We must determine to whom we will choose to yield our hearts and lives.

As citizens of God’s eternal kingdom, our constant goal is to submit our hearts to the rule of God and our daily lives to walking with Jesus as Lord of lords and King of kings. Of course, Satan is bound and determined to do all he can to discourage and convince us to allow him to be the only lord of our lives. This is where the spiritual battle is fought against the spiritual wiles of the devil. Because of the spiritual nature of our warfare, we as Christians must put on the whole armor of God that we might be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might (Eph. 6:10-11). Without the power of Jesus, none of us are any match against the power of Satan who is a powerful fallen cherub angel. Any Christian who thinks he is immune to temptation is under a great delusion of Satan! Paul himself described his sinful human nature in Romans 7 as that in which sin, evil and nothing good dwell. Anyone who has tried to live the Christian life by sheer human will power alone is bound for failure. Many do not possess enough will power to even keep a strict diet. The sooner we recognize the power of our old human nature, the sooner we will understand our absolute need for the power of Christ to help us live the life of faith.

This brings us back to the importance of personal prayer in our daily lives. No Christian prays that God may help him a little and he will do the rest! Contrary to the thinking of some, God does not help those who help themselves. Instead, He helps only those who know that they have reached the end of themselves! The old man of self-trust has been hurried into his grave. Christ is the only focus of the new man in Christ.

In Christ we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace.

Ephesians 1:7

Forgiveness! What a sweet and precious gift. What we were powerless to fix, make up or pay for, God did for us in Jesus. With him, each day is a fresh start and rebirth of Springtime. But my, such a terrible cost he paid to give it to us!
