The Kingdom Of God

The kingdom of God involves the perfect execution of God’s will by His holy angels in heaven. Jesus promised men that the kingdom of God was at hand and would come with power during the lifetimes of His disciples (Mark 9:1). This promise was fulfilled on the day of Pentecost when the apostles were baptized by the Holy Spirit, and Christ’s church was established (Acts 2).

On that historic day Peter commanded the people to “Repent and let each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit” (Acts 2:38). In Matthew 16:18, Jesus promised Peter “the keys of the kingdom of heaven.” The keys are the authority to enter God’s kingdom, and those who obeyed Peter’s commands were “delivered from the domain of darkness (or Satan’s kingdom) and were transferred to the kingdom of His beloved Son” (Colossians 1:13).

Citizenship in the kingdom of God involves the personal presence of the Holy Spirit whom God gives to those who obey Him (Acts 5:32). The Holy Spirit is the identifying mark of the citizens of God’s kingdom, just as Satan’s spirit is the identifying mark of, “the sons of disobedience” (Ephesians 2:2).

By the power of His Holy Spirit, Jesus reigns in the hearts of the citizens of His kingdom, empowering them to walk in His statutes (Ezekiel 36:27). This does not mean the earthly citizens of God’s kingdom never sin (1 John 1:10), but it does mean that their love for Jesus and the presence of His Holy Spirit create an inner longing to “be perfect” as (the) heavenly Father is perfect” (Matthew 5:48).

Citizenship in God’s kingdom also means that through faith in Jesus’ blood we (like God’s angels in heaven) are freed from sin (Romans 8:2), and by the Spirit we have the power to put to death the deeds of the flesh (Romans 8:13).

The kingdom of God is “Christ in you, the hope of glory” (Colossians 1:27). God’s kingdom is “righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit” (Romans 14:17). Have you been born again of water and Spirit (John 3:5)? Are you in the kingdom of God?

I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you... that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to Scriptures. — 1 Corinthians 15:1-4

The story of the Gospel is simple. The grace of the Gospel is glorious. The sacrifice of the Gospel is incomprehensible. The victory of the Gospel is eternal. The core of the Gospel is Christ.
