"New Birth and New Life"

When God our Savior revealed his kindness and love, he saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit. He generously poured out the Spirit upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior. Because of his grace he declared us righteous and gave us confidence that we will inherit eternal life. — Titus 3:4-7 NLT

While some remember that Jesus poured out the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2), not everyone remembers that when we came to Christ, we were reborn by the washing away of our sins and were also given the gift of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:38-39). Today's verses remind us that when we came to Christ, God "generously poured out the Spirit upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior." Jesus is our Savior not only because he saved us from our sins, but also because he poured out the Spirit upon us to empower us to overcome our present struggles with sin. No wonder we can be confident in grace and righteousness and eternal life!

Lifelines by Patty McAlister

Do you ever feel alone and unprotected? Have you ever felt like David must have felt when he was hiding from his enemies? We may not have real live enemies chasing after us, instead, ours may be loneliness or hurting. So much may be happening in our lives that we forget the comfort that God has offered us. “For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways...” (Psalm 91:11).

God sent the Spirit to guide us, to help us through difficult times. Do we not also have angels ministering to us? “Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?” (Hebrews 1:14).

Even Jesus, when talking to the disciples, said, “See that you do not look down on these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven.” (Matthew 18:10). Angels guard over God’s people as well as little children. That is the comfort offered to us.

Letting Christ into our lives will remove this loneliness. There is nothing in our lives too small or too large for God. He cares, and He wants to be involved. He sent angels to minister to Jesus. He sends them for us. How do angels work in our lives? Through prayers, through our belief, through our obedience, even in our weaknesses.

Upcoming Events:

We are having a VBS
June 27th – June 30th from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
There will be classes for preschool to 6th grade and also adult classes each night.
We are needing lots of help, so please see Diane Walters.

We will be having a 4th of July celebration on Sunday, July 3rd. A short Sunday service at 5:30 p.m., followed with supper and activities.
Burger, hot dogs and chips are provided.
Sign-up sheet will be passed around next Sunday for the sides and drinks. There will be a bump-n-jump and games for the kids. Also, can’t forget the great firework show that Rex McDaniel’s puts on for us.
Bring your lawn chairs and come out and enjoy the fellowship.
