Winning The War Over Worry

Matthew 6:25-34

In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus condemned worry and anxiety as “foreign” to the citizens of His kingdom. Just as God clothes the fields with beautiful lilies, we fully trust Him to clothe us. Faith replaces our fears!

Jesus commands us to “consider the lilies of the field.” “Consider” involves deep thought, meditation and careful study. Jesus mentions two factors to consider from the lilies; they neither toil nor spin and yet God makes them even more glorious than Solomon, the richest king clothed in all his earthly glory. Even he was not arrayed like the lilies of the field.

God’s wisdom from our study of the lilies, is that we should not toil and labor to become fruitful disciples. Lilies do not toil and labor to grow. God has put in them His power to grow beautiful. God has also given those who are in Christ Jesus the power of His indwelling Spirit. As Christians, we should fully trust God for our physical raiment, but even more we must trust Him for our spiritual clothing – the perfect righteousness of Jesus. Just as the lily does not toil to grow but only abides in the soil, we should not toil to produce spiritual fruit; we just abide in Jesus as the Vine and His Holy Spirit empowers us to produce His fruit in our lives.

“How do Jesus’ disciples abide in Him?” His answer, “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me” (Luke 9:23). To abide in Jesus is to “deny ourselves.” Self-denial is to reckon (count) ourselves “to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 6:11). Faith that we are “crucified with Christ” produces an attitude of self-denial.

The world has hardened, stony and thorny hearts (Matthew 13). Disciples with good and honest hearts hear the word, understand it and bear fruit. Once again, our own fleshly power can never bear fruit. God alone bears His fruit when sincere hearts focus on Jesus as the Vine. If our focus remains on Him, we “are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. Abide in Me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in Me” (John 15:3-4). Do you abide in His gospel truth so that you no longer live; for you have been crucified with Him, and His life-giving Spirit now lives in you to produce His spiritual fruit in you to the glory of the Father?
