Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you

Ephesians 4:32

I have Found the Answer!

I think I found it, the answer to the questions we have been asking ourselves since the beginning of time:

How can I make the world a better place?

What can I do to help stop the violence that is happening around us?

What can I do in my own little circle of influence to make life better for the people closest to me?

The answer isn't profound. It doesn't require a lot of energy, nor will it cost you a cent. It is actually very simple and something we all have the ability to do.

Are you ready to hear what is going to change you and the world around you? Be kind.

That's it. Just be kind.

Be kind to your spouse, your boyfriend or girlfriend.

Be kind to your children, your parents, and grandparents.

Be kind to your neighbors, your doctor, and your dentist.

Be kind to the cashier at the grocery store, the department store, and the pharmacy.

Be kind to animals, the forests, and our oceans.

Be kind to policemen, firemen and other first responders.

Be kind to the postal worker, the FedEx driver and even the person who calls to tell you your credit is fine, but....

And most importantly, be kind to yourself.

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus, so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 15:5-6

Unity comes from God's Spirit as we follow Jesus. But unity has a purpose much deeper than our getting along with each other. Jesus prayed we would be one so that the world would know that God sent Jesus into the world as his Son (John 17). We want to be united so that our praise can bring glory to God. Unity is far more than a goal. Unity is a process through which the world learns of Jesus. At the same time, we glorify the Father who sent Jesus to save us. Leading others to Jesus and glorifying God are what living for Jesus is all about! Let's make unity our passion!
