God's Love Spelled Out

Mankind's native land is Eden – God's original land of perfect love, joy, and peace. Unfortunately, man's sin drove him out of Eden into separation from God's Paradise. Anytime a citizen leaves his native land, he tends to lose his native speech. Since "God is love," His love is "a foreign language" which many cannot fluently speak as man once did in his native Garden of Eden.

In His perfect wisdom and foreknowledge, God devised a plan in which Eden's love and fellowship could be restored. The Father sent Jesus as His heavenly gift to spell out His perfect love to man (cf. John 3:16).

It had been so long since man had heard God's voice, that Jesus encountered great difficulty in communicating God's love. What He said sounded good, but it almost sounded too good to be true! Does God really love us – even in our sins? Is it really true that God yearns to woo us back to His love? When Jesus broke the silence of the world of sin with the voice of Heaven's love, the human heart with its ingrained selfishness had great difficulty understanding and accepting God's unconditional love.

Jesus, in His sinless life, spelled out all the perfect words of Eden's love! He spelled out PURITY, the sinlessness of Eden.

He spelled out OBEDIENCE, God's perfect will in Eden. He spelled out PEACE, the sweet music of Eden. And most of all, He spelled out LOVE, the heartbeat of Eden. Jesus spelled out "LOVE" in the biggest capital letters man has ever witnessed since the days of Eden's Paradise of love. Jesus traced each letter of His love in the deep, dripping red of His blood on Calvary.

Mankind today is searching for something genuine. Sadly, many do not know what it is. Just as God's heart of love yearns for an intimate relationship with man, we who have been created in the spiritual image of God also have a deep subconscious yearning for a relationship with our God. We may try all of Satan's substitutes, but in the end, we will know that all we really needed was God's perfect love!

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. — Galatians 2:20

We are dead, but more alive than ever before. We are crucified and humiliated, yet glorified as never before. You see, Christ lives in us. He works through us to bless others. So the life we live now in our limited bodies is not limited — it is the work of Christ. The life we live now is lived by faith in the one and only Savior, who has shown his love by giving himself to redeem us.
