“The Battle for Our Minds”

Ephesians 6:10-18

Difficult Decisions

God’s faithful children always seek the Father’s will first and foremost through the Scriptures. We listen to Jesus as God’s Word (John. 1:1). His written Word is always the authority to guide our faith. If we have a “thus says the Lord”, there is no question as to what God’s will is.

However, some decisions are not as easy to make and there are no specific commands from God as to what His will is. In such cases, we must pray for wisdom (James 1:5). We must ask the Lord for divine insight that we may choose the path most in harmony with His perfect will. God’s Word assures His children that He works in us “both to will and to do for His good pleasure” (Philippians 2:13). New Testament Christians are no longer bound by the letter of God’s Law, but “we serve in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter” (Romans 7:6).

When we long to do God’s will, but do not know what His will may be, we must fall on our knees and cry out for God’s wisdom to direct us. As we prayerfully wrestle with difficult decisions, we are forced to be totally honest with God and with ourselves, for He fully knows our hearts! He knows if we are seeking His will only. Jesus promises that those who ask it will be given, those who seek will find and those who knock it will be opened (Matthew 7:7). When we prayerfully “ask, seek and knock”, we are assured by the Lord Jesus Himself that we will come to know God’s will concerning even our most difficult decisions!

To pray means to wait on the Lord for the enlightenment of His wisdom. Our waiting on the Lord must be with an attitude of total humility and submission as we pray that God’s will alone be done. Paul wrote: “he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not eat from faith, for whatever is not from faith is sin” (Romans 14:23). The context of Paul’s warning is the eating of meat that may have been sacrificed to idols of which the Christian is unaware. The difficult question is: “should I eat or should I not eat?” Paul’s conclusion applies to any question regarding God’s will. Don’t do whatever you may have serious doubts about, for to oppose the conscience is to oppose God’s holy will.
